

Circletalk

For Educators

Supporting Students. Streamlining Communication. A secure, student-centred tool to fast-track planning and support in education settings.

What is Circletalk?

Circletalk is a secure, user-led app that helps individuals and their trusted supporters organise and share personal information that supports success in:

- ✓ Study
- ✓ Employment
- ✓ Independent living
- ✓ Community life

It allows key personal and support information to be stored, updated, and shared in one place—making it easier to create and maintain Individual Learning Plans (ILPs) and Access Plans.

For use in:

- Mainstream and specialist schools
- Transition and Pathways programs
- Vocational and modified study environments
- TAFE and community learning

Key Benefits for Educators

- Fast-track development and updates of ILPs and Access Plans
- View real-time updates on student goals, support needs, strengths, and tools used for free
- Focus on what matters during Student Support Group (SSG) meetings
- Save time on repeated conversations with multiple stakeholders

Real Time Collaboration

- Teachers and wellbeing staff can be invited to view only what the student or their carer chooses to share
- Access strengths-based information in real time
- Use as a dynamic support tool throughout the school year
- Parents, carers and educators can align more easily during meetings and transitions

Where do I start?

Provide the Participant brochure to Parents and Students. This service is available through the NDIS under Low-Cost Assistive Technology, or as a self-funded, fee-for-service option. It comes with a one-off annual fee of $390 AUD. Parents of under 18 students can unsubscribe and rejoin at any time, as student needs evolve.

- Parents or over 18 students can download Circletalk on the App Store or Google Play
